to the residents of Watteria and surrounding communities . . . Descendant of a long line of European tailors, Tine's, "the tailor," announces plans to enlarge his Watteria store. Some twenty years ago, Tine's opened his first shop in Long Beach, introducing a new concept into the field of men's clothing. Tine's policy is to make up a select stock of ready-for-wear from his own bolts of imported fine wools. His ready-for-wear suits and sport coats have the same exacting and meticulous details usually found only in tailored to measure clothing. These fine new Fall clothes are now offered for sale at disposal prices to expedite the remodeling program. Entire stock of clothes must be sold before the cabinet makers can get on with the job of remodeling and enlarging the selling space of his store. ## New Tech Arts Building Ready for Use Oct. 1

Newest addition to the El Camino College campus, the Tech Arts Building, is expected to be completed and ready for occupancy by Oct. 1, Carl G. Arfwedson, assistant director of business announced today.

Some classes slated to open this fall in Tech Arts building are meeting temporarily in other buildings while others, such as the cosmetology and sewing classes, have not yet met as a result of the building delay.

"The six weeks' delay has been caused in part by strikes among the plasterers and lathers," Arfwedson said.

Facilities in the Tech Arts building, located on Manhattan Beach Blvd., include classrooms for the cosmetology department, power sewing classes, radio-electronics and drafting. Office space will also be provided for the assistant director and for the faculty members utilizing the new structure.

Use Classified. Call FA 8-2345.
